

TECH PREP and NEVAC – What's the Difference?

	College Credit and Careers Network	NEVAC
What is? ...	The College Credit and Careers Network (C3N) is a partnership of 4 community & technical colleges, 9 school districts, and 29 high schools. Tech Prep is a bridge between the secondary and postsecondary education systems providing high school students the opportunity to earn college credit at the same time they earn high school credit.	The Northeast Vocational Area Cooperative (NEVAC) is a partnership of 7 school districts that share students and specialized programs. NEVAC has over 30 programs to choose from that provide advanced skills training with state of the art technologies, employment preparation, and experience in a chosen field.
Mission	Provides opportunities for students to explore career pathways while in high school and to earn credit toward a professional/technical 2-year degree or certificate.	Provides a broad range of professional/technical courses for students to explore, while in high school, which can expand options for the future.
